GOVERNMENT OF KERALA
 Finance (Rules-A) Department

NOTIFICATION

G. O. (P) No. 01/2013/Fin.

Dated, Thiruvananthapuram, 1st January, 2013.

S. R. O. No. 2/2013.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 2 of the Kerala Public Services Act, 1968 (19 of 1968), read with section 3 thereof, the Government of Kerala hereby make the following rules further to amend the Kerala Service Rules, namely:—

RULES

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Kerala Service (Amendment) Rules, 2013.

(2) Save as otherwise provided in these rules, they shall come into force at once.

2. Amendment of the Rules.—In Part I of the Kerala Service Rules, in rule 60, after sub-rule (ac), the following sub-rules shall be inserted, namely:—

“(ad) Doctors in the Medical category under the Medical Education Service and the Dental Colleges and Dental Wings in the Medical Colleges and the teaching staff, including Principals of the Ayurveda Colleges and Homoeopathic Medical Colleges shall retire on the afternoon of the last day of the month in which they attain the age of 60 years:

Provided that this provision shall not be applicable to the faculties in Nursing, Pharmacy and non-medical category under the Medical Education Service.

This sub-rule shall be deemed to have come into force in the case of the Doctors in the medical category under the Medical Education Service on the 1st day of May, 2009, in the case of the Doctors working in the Dental Colleges and the Dental Wings in the Medical Colleges, on the 30th day of March, 2012, in the case of the teaching staff of the Ayurveda Colleges on the 7th day of April, 2012 and in the case of the teaching staff of the Homoeopathic Medical Colleges on the 9th day of April, 2012.

(ae) The categories of teaching staff including Principals mentioned in the sub-rule (ad) who complete the age of 60 years during the course of an academic year shall continue in service till the last day of the month in which the academic year ends; but the extended period of service shall not be reckoned for any service benefits such as increment, higher grade, accrual of leave, promotion and pay revision effective from a date after the date of superannuation under sub-rule (ad). The period shall not be counted as qualifying service for pension and the pay received during the period shall not be reckoned for computing average emoluments or pensionary benefits or commuted value of pension. If they are on leave on the day they attain the age of 60 years and fail to rejoin duty on the first working day immediately after the date of superannuation, they shall be retired with effect from the date of superannuation under sub-rule (ad). But, in cases where officers coming under this rule are under suspension on the date of superannuation or thereafter, but before the closing day of the academic year, they shall be retired from service on the date of superannuation or on the date of suspension, whichever is later.

If, the day on which the categories of teaching staff including Principals mentioned in the sub-rule (ad) attain the age of 60 years falls within the period of one month beginning with the day of reopening of the institutions, they shall cease to be on duty with effect from the date of such reopening and they shall be granted additional leave from the date of reopening to the last day of the month in which they attain the age of 60 years. They shall be entitled to the benefit of increment if it falls due before the actual date on which they attain the age of 60 years.

The additional leave granted under this sub-rule shall not be counted against the eligible leave but shall be counted for pension. During the period of leave they may draw leave allowance at the same rate as the pay and allowances they would have drawn if they were on duty;

Note 1.—Even in cases where it is found absolutely necessary to retain the service of a teaching staff specified in sub-rule (ad), who has attained the age of 60 years, as far as possible only re-employment after retirement shall be resorted to, which shall not ordinarily be sanctioned for more than one year at a time.

Note 2.—Completion of 60 years of age in service shall be in the afternoon and not in the forenoon. If the date of birth of a person is the first day of July, he completes his 60th year on the 30th day of June, and that date (30th June) is the last day of the month in which he completes the 60th year. If on the first day of July he is on his 61st year and that day is a non-working day for him, he shall cease to be in service on and from the 1st day of July.

Note 3.—A teaching staff specified in sub-rule (ad) whose date of birth is the first day of July and who attains the age of 60 years shall not be allowed to continue in service till the end of the academic year.”.

By order of the Governor,

V. P. Joy,

Principal Secretary to Government.

Explanatory Note

(This does not form part of the notification, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

As per G. O. (Ms.) No. 14/2010/H&FWD dated 14th January, 2010, the Government have raised the retirement age of doctors in the medical category under the Medical Education Service, excluding the faculties belonging to Dental, Nursing, Pharmacy and non-medical categories, from 55 years to 60 years with effect from the 1st May, 2009. Later, as per G. O. (Ms.) No. 105/2012/H&FWD dated 30th March, 2012, the Government have raised the retirement age of the doctors working at the Government Dental Colleges and Dental Wings in the Medical Colleges, excluding the faculties belonging to Nursing, Pharmacy and non-medical categories, from 55 years to 60 years with effect from the 1st May, 2009. The retirement age in respect of the teaching staff of the Ayurveda Colleges has been raised from 56 years to 60 years as per G. O. (Ms.) No. 107/2012/H&FWD dated 7th April, 2012 and of the retirement age of teaching staff of the Homoeopathic Medical Colleges has also been raised from 56 years to 60 years as per G. O. (Ms.) No. 108/2012/H&FWD dated 9th April, 2012. To give statutory validity to the above Government Orders, Government have decided to amend rule 60 of Part I of the Kerala Service Rules.
