2. GO(Ms) No.536/2012/(116)/Fin dated 29/09/2012.

ORDER

As per GO read as 2nd paper, Government have introduced Career Advancement Scheme to the directly recruited professionals in the service of State Government by introducing non-cadre promotion along with ratio and Time Bound Higher Grade Promotion, to widen the scope for promotion, taking into account the nominal promotion chances being availed by them. Now, demands are being received for granting the benefit of the scheme to those directly recruited professionals having diploma qualification also.

2. The IXth Pay Revision Commission recommended Career Advancement Scheme only to those directly recruited Professionals, who have degree qualification in the subject concerned. Government are therefore pleased to clarify that the Career Advancement Scheme implemented as per the G.O. read as 2nd paper above is applicable to the directly recruited degree holding Professionals only.
